

NZPFU TRIENNIAL LOCAL ELECTIONS 2022

Please post this notice on union notice boards and make all members are aware that nominations are called, and the elections are overseen by the Returning Officer as set out below.

In accordance with the Rules of the New Zealand Professional Firefighters' Union, nominations are called for the positions of:

Hawkes Bay Local	President
Hawkes Bay Local	Vice-President
Hawkes Bay Local	Committee members (up to 10 Committee member positions)

What do Local Officials and Local Committee members do?

Please see attached an outline of the duties of the Local Secretary, President and Vice President. The Local Officials are responsible for building relationships to raise and resolve issues affecting the Local and notifying the National office of issues that are or may be national matters, or where support and assistance is needed.

It is important that the Local Officials are also supported with a Local Committee. Local Committee members attend and participate in Local meetings and, depending on the size of the Local, may be assigned a specific Local portfolio depending on skill set and interests, or represent the Union as a Subject Matter Expert (SME) in working parties and projects.

The National Union communicates with Local Officials primarily by phone and video conference to update and inform Locals of key issues and events, and to canvass the Local's view or current circumstances. The National Union also provides support as needed including representation for members with individual matters.
