

CLAIM FORM ➔

NZPFU Injury and Sickness

EXT194

For dental claims, please use the Protect Accidental Dental Injury claim form.

Call ATC for Assistance Toll Free on 0800 300 143

1. You complete Section A, including either the Injury Statement OR the Sickness Statement.

2. Your medical practitioner completes Section B. A medical practitioner is either a general practitioner (GP) or a specialist. It does not include allied health professionals such as a physiotherapist, chiropractor, or nurse.

3. Your employer completes Section C and includes a 12 month pay reporting substantiating your average weekly earnings.

Important: Please submit Section A and Section B without delay to allow ATC to commence the assessment of your claim while waiting for Section C to be completed by your employer.

4. If you went to hospital following an injury, attach a copy of the hospital admission notes.

5. Check all questions have been answered (including by selecting either Yes or No wherever this option is given) and each section has been signed and dated.

Your claim will be delayed if we have to return your claim form to you because it is incomplete.

6. Please keep a copy of the completed claim form and attachments for your records.

7. Send, or scan and email, or deliver your completed form in person to:

Important Information

Please read the following information carefully, prior to completing this ATC Insurance/Protect claim form.

1. Assistance with Completing the Claim Form

- Call our dedicated Protect claims team Toll Free on 0800 300 143 during Australian business hours.
- Union members can also contact their union directly for assistance.

2. Claim Assessment

- Every claim is unique and the assessment time will depend on the complexity of your medical condition and how quickly we can obtain all the information required to process the claim.
- You can help prevent any unnecessary delays by ensuring all relevant questions in the claim form are answered and any additional documentation is provided as quickly as possible.

3. Waiting Periods

- All Protect insurance claims have a waiting period, during which no benefits are payable.
- For ACC Top-Up claims, there is a waiting period of 7 consecutive days.
- For all other claim types, there is a waiting period of 14 consecutive days.

4. Medical Certificates

- Valid medical certificates are required for any period of incapacity, including weekends.
- A valid medical certificate must include:
  - Your medical practitioner's name and signature
  - Your name
  - The full cause of your incapacity (eg John Smith is suffering from a broken left ankle)
  - The start and end dates of your incapacity.

5. Additional Documentation Required

- Conditions Requiring Hospitalisation
  - If you were, or will be, admitted to hospital, please provide copies of any documentation you are provided with, such as admission notes, test results and discharge information.
- Injuries Involving a Bone Fracture
  - Some injury claims (but not all) may qualify for a lump sum 'broken bone' benefit, payable once you receive medical clearance to return to work.
  - If you have sustained a fracture, please provide a copy of your radiological report with your claim.
- ACC Top-Up Claims
  - Please provide us with the relevant details of your accepted ACC claim including a copy of ACC's 'Payment Notification' letter.
  - Throughout the duration of an accepted ACC top-up claim, we will require copies of payment notification letters showing the payments made to you by ACC.
  - If your Injury occurred while playing amateur sport, additional information may be required.

Privacy

In this statement "we", "us" and "our" means Lloyd's and ATC Insurance Solutions (ATC) as its agent.

We are bound by the requirements of the Privacy Act 2020. This sets out standards on the collection, use, disclosure and handling of personal information.

Our Privacy Policy is available at www.atcis.com.au or by calling us on the number below.

We, and our agents, need to collect, use and disclose your personal information in order to consider your application for insurance and to provide the cover you have chosen, administer the insurance and assess any claim. You can choose not to provide us with some of the details or all of your personal information, but this may affect our ability to provide the cover, administer the insurance or assess a claim.

We may disclose your personal information to third parties (and/or collect additional personal information about you from them) who assist us in providing the above services and some of these are likely to be overseas recipients in the United Kingdom. These parties which include our related entities, distributors, agents, insurers, claims investigators, assessors, lawyers, medical practitioners and health workers, and federal or state regulatory authorities, including Accident Compensation Corporation will only use the personal information for the purposes we provided it to them for (unless otherwise required by law).

Information will be obtained from individuals directly where possible and practicable to do so. Sometimes it may be collected indirectly (e.g. from your representatives or co-insureds). If you provide information for another person you represent to us that:

- you have the authority from them to do so and it is as if they provided it to us;
- you have made them aware that you will or may provide their personal information to us, the types of third parties we may provide it to, the relevant purposes we and the third parties we disclose it to will use it for, and how they can access it. If it is sensitive information we rely on you to have obtained their consent on these matters. If you have not done or will not do either of these things, you must tell us before you provide the relevant information.

You are entitled to access your information and request correction if required. You may also opt out of receiving materials sent by us by contacting ATC Toll Free on 0800 300 143 or write to us at the address given on page one.
